

SOLO SITE: SANDRA JOHNSTON

SUNDAY 16TH FEBRUARY 2014
14:00 - 16:00
BEDERN HALL, YORK

O U I Performance is proud to present the work of performance artist Sandra Johnston. Situated in historic BEDERN HALL, York, a 14th century building originally part of the College of the Vicars Choral of York Minster, Johnston will present a durational work in response to the site.

Johnston works in site-responsive actions, video/audio installations and durational drawings. The performance actions could be seen as propositions of compulsive communication, developed from the direct revelations of a body inhabiting space, light and motion, often in correspondence to the behaviour of others. Often there is a sense of inventing privacy, then a precise protecting of its parameters. Each work is a search for fluidity and clarity in the present moment.

Johnston has presented work internationally since 1992 in a diverse range of contexts and interdisciplinary forms, including representing Northern Ireland at the Venice Biennale in 2005.

This is a durational performance for 2 hours, you may come and go as you please throughout. Kindly supported by York St John University.
